

Pets On-the-Go

With pandemic travel restrictions lifting and outdoor activities still popular, owners are looking for easy ways to travel with their pets

Pets On-the-Go

In the past year, recent pet parents and longtime owners have strengthened their bonds. Extensive time together has resulted in a desire to include furry family members everywhere people travel.

Here are the emerging trends in on-the-go activities with pets:

- On the road: allow pet parents to bring their loved ones on the road with portable products and spill-proof innovations
- Outdoor living: activities such as hiking and camping require pet equipment that is functional, waterproof and adaptable
- Beachwear: include pets on beach trips with protective gear and cooling accessories
- Utilitarian details: pet products take cues from outdoor lifestyles with durable materials and functional hardware
- Nature-inspired: give everyday pet items an update with floral prints and an earthy colour palette
- Portable feeding: no matter the length of the trip, owners are prioritising products that help keep their pets fed and hydrated
- Flight companions: help people breeze through airport security with convenient travel accessories and pet carriers that meet aviation guidelines
